jill pumpelly

FINE ART

Jill Pumpelly expresses her surroundings and feelings through abstract forms. She is inspired by human nature and the ways in which humans perceive themselves and the world around them. Each composition develops organically and through the process, she applies paint in layers, allowing traces of previous layers to remain visible so the colors can react with one another until a particular balance, depth, and feeling are present.

As an artist and former interior designer, Jill has a unique understanding of both the creation process, but also how it fits within the context of a home.

LILI ALESSANDRA

The Lili Alessandra product is made by skilled artisans who translate each piece into a magnificent works of art for your home.

M O S S S T U D I O

MADE IN THE USA SINCE 1989

At Moss Studio, we use innovative ideas to choose textiles and materials that cater to seasonal aesthetics. Once our concepts and ideas are built into the finest pieces of furniture, small modifications are implemented to best represent our brand.

From modifying leg pieces, to giving additional curvature and swapping color schemes, each piece is custom ordered and hand made with the most durable materials that speak to our company's character.

Pigeon & Poodle believes the details of a home are just as important as the furniture that fills your rooms. This philosophy is demonstrated in each of our accessories—a gorgeous toothbrush holder or handcrafted canister can elevate an entire bath, the perfect frame can heighten the feel of a whole space, and a good-looking storage basket can be your look's missing link.

REGINA ANDREW

DETROIT

Our roots run deep in the city we call home. Known as the Paris of the Midwest, Detroit style and character (or courage) have shaped who we are, what we make and how we make it.

Our pursuit of inspiration has taken us across the earth to discover materials and forms that drive our designs. Crafted with an obsessive attention to detail and a quest to deliver the unexpected, our products, much like the journey that inspired them, have a story.
